

Registered nurses challenged to commit “7 Acts of Green”

Nurses at St. John's Service Canada Centre, along with Lynn Power of the Association of Registered Nurses of Newfoundland and Labrador (ARNNL), have an environmentally friendly "Florence Nightingale" read their proclamation committing their workplace to green initiatives.
