

AT A GLANCE

INNOVATION STATIONS

MONDAY-WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18-20

Monday 19:30-21:00
Tuesday 10:15-11:00, 12:30-13:30, 15:00-15:30
Wednesday 09:30-10:00, 11:30-12:30, 14:00-14:30

Canada Hall 2

Station	Title
Station 1	Continuing Education Needs and Challenges for Nurses Working on the Front Line
Station 2	The main stressors that family members of a hospitalized neonatal, pediatric or adult intensive care patient, as well as effective intervention strategies
Station 3	Pertussis Outbreak in a Northern Ontario Community: Connections make the difference!
Station 4	Harm Reduction and Illicit Substance Use
Station 5	A Scoping Review on Family-Centred Health Literacy
Station 6	Interprofessional Collaboration with the Clinical Nurse Specialist
Station 7	Nurse Fatigue: Designing an Infographic to Communicate the Problem to Canadian Nurses
Station 8	Harnessing technology to improve nursing student preparation to participate in simulation: Feasibility, usability and learning outcomes of an innovative virtual simulation game
Station 9	A Nursing Leadership Project: Mentorship to Support Community Health Nursing Certification in Indigenous Communities
Station 10	The development and pilot of a post-acute care nurse-patient assignment tool
Station 11	Patient-Oriented Research at an Outpatient Movement Disorders Clinic: Lessons Learned from the Patient Consultation Process
Station 12	Development and implementation of a suicide prevention protocol in long-term care
Station 13	Telehomecare — A Technology Tool for Home Healthcare Success

MORE INNOVATION STATIONS ON NEXT PAGE

Station 14	The role of the Rapid Response Nurse (RRN) in the community: Enhancing the patient experience in transition from hospital to home
Station 15	HautHealth: The Effect of Social Media on Health Knowledge
Station 16	Building Bridges for Stollery Awasisak (children in Cree) Indigenous Health
Station 17	Patient-Family Centered Care and Communication
Station 18	Reducing Hospital Harm
Station 19	Canadian Expertise: CPSI Patient Safety Education Program Canada (PSEP – Canada): Patient / Client Safety in Home Care
Station 20	Recovery Activation Community Transition (ReACT) Service: Supporting Successful Transition of Patients Experiencing Severe, Persistent Mental Illness into the Community
Station 21	Using the Nursing Role Effectiveness Model to Evaluate Nursing Contributions in Healthcare: Does the Model have Utility within the Primary Care Setting?